

Call for Board Member (Communications)

Position Title: General Board Member (Communications)

Position Type: Volunteer

Location: Netherlands

Young Energy Specialists and Development Co-operation (YES-DC)

is an association for young professionals and students in the energy and co-operation fields. It aims to expand the network of our young professionals and spread awareness about clean and sustainable energy by shedding light on the development in this field on the science and business level nationally and internationally.

The members of YES-DC are young professionals and students in the field of energy and/or sustainability. They work within local and international companies, government bodies, universities, research institutions, and NGOs. The board of YES-DC are honorary members, which besides their professional occupations take care of the organisational and financial framework, and organise knowledge-sharing and networking opportunities, while considering the valuable input from its members along the way.

We are looking for a Member of the Board that brings in relevant Communications strategy to the network development. Are you looking to build your career in the field of Energy and Development? Are you a young professional or student aiming to extend his/her network, accumulate knowledge and spread awareness about clean and sustainable energy projects? Do you want to do that voluntarily? Then Young Energy Specialists and Development Co-operation (YES-DC) is looking for you.

Specifically, you will be:

- Writing and distributing content for our activities and events;
- Supervise and update our online presence on LinkedIn, Facebook and Twitter;
- Supervise and update our webpage;
- Produce Newsletter for our members;
- Working with the Board members (especially the Board Member for Research and Content) to create high-quality content.

You are:

- Interested in renewable and sustainable energy, and sustainable development;
- Have excellent writing, proofreading, and editing skills (in English); Proficiency in Dutch and other languages are an asset!
- Some experience in online communications and social media platforms;
- Familiarity with Wordpress, Mailchimp (desirable);
- Planning, organisational, and intercultural communication skills;
- Flexibility and capacity to work independently, as well as in a team;
- Love to work in a young and dynamic team.

What we offer:

- Great opportunity to expand your network with our partners.
- The opportunity to participate in the United Nations Climate Change Conference 2022 in Egypt.
- Flexible work locations.
- Flexible work time.
- Travel allowance

Important notice:

The workload is between 2-4 hours per week and it is voluntarily based there is no remuneration, except for reimbursement of expenses (commuting costs for board meetings). The proposed term of service would begin as soon as possible and last for a year. The position is open only to persons residing in the Netherlands.

How to apply:

Please send in your application through this link on or before 22nd July 2022. We will review applications on a rolling basis until the deadline.
